PLEASE READ BEFORE BIDDING

Coins and medals are sold at so much per lot and no lot will be separated. The auctioneer will accept an advance of 1 cent up to 50c., then 5c. up to $2.50, when 10c. advance must be bid, up to $10, when no advance under 25 cents will be accepted. You can bid anything up to 50c., after that the bid must be 55c., or 60c. Such offers as 51c., $1.01, etc., are unavailable.

Auction sales are strictly for cash. Parties unknown to me and bidding for the first time, must give bank or other reliable reference.

Forward your bids as early as possible, as thousands of bids have to be entered. Do not make ridiculously low bids, such as 10 and 15c. on foreign silver coins worth several times over as bullion. Write your bids plainly, with a pen if practicable. I have taken special pains to carefully and fairly describe each lot.

Where the number of pieces in a lot is not given after the description, there is but one piece in the lot.

The coins, etc., in each lot are different unless otherwise described.

Be sure you bid on the lot you wish to buy.

All coins etc., are genuine unless otherwise described.

My charge for executing bids will be 5 per cent. No charge made for bidding except for lots actually purchased. Remit by money order or New York draft, as the usual exchange fee will be deducted from checks.

We will price your catalogue for $1.00.

RARE PATTERNS FOR U. S. PAPER MONEY.

- 581 Dec. 1, 1863. $100 Treasury Coupon note. With three coupons attached, each for $2½. On the left two male figures representing Commerce and Industry; on the right, scene on board a man-o-war in action, with large smooth-bore cannon; in the two upper corners engine-turned ovals on which are C overlapped by the figures 100. This was to be issued December first 1863, with interest at 5 per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and was to run for 2 years. The last semi-annual interest to be redeemed with the note. This is a beautiful specimen of the engravers' art, with engraved sigs. of Chittenden and Spinner. Has small cancel holes, but not in any way conspicuous. Note never regularly issued, and excessively rare. Crisp.
- 582 $100.00. Three year United States Treasury Note. In the center a finely engraved standing figure of Washington; to the left a female figure emblematic of Liberty; to the right a female figure representing Justice, holding balances. In right and left upper corner, oval engine-turned labels on which are the Arabic figures "100." This was to be a 3 year interest note payable at rate of 6 per cent. per annum. This note never appeared in circulation, and is rated as one of the rarest of the United States pattern pieces of paper money. So far as can be learned, there is only another specimen. Slightly canceled, but in no way to disfigure the design. Crisp.

- 583 Mar. 3, 1863. $50. A national customs note. In the left side standing figure of Liberty; on the right lower corner a vignette of Hamilton; at the right hand corner an engine-turned oval on which are the figures "50"; at each corner of the bill in semi-circle are the words "Fifty." In large gold letters in the center of the note in two lines are the words "National Customs Note." This was to bear interest for one year at the rate of 5 per cent. This also bears the engraved sigs. of Clittenden and Spinner. Four slight cancel holes, principal types uninjured. So far as can be learned, this is the only evidence that the United States ever intended to issue a note to be devoted to the payment of Customs. Excessively rare. Only two or three are known. Crisp.
- 584 Oct. 1, 1860. $5.00. The Bank of North America, Philadelphia. In the center an Indian princess sitting within a large and elaborate representation of a Roman numeral V, with an eagle in the foreground; to the right of the central device is a vignette of Benjamin Franklin; to the left a vignette of a lady. At either end of the note are three large 5s, arranged vertically, the central one on an engine-turned tablet in red; to the right and left of the female figure a very large figure 5 in red, while directly below the figure the word FIVE in red ink. Signed in ink by Thos. Smith, President, and J. Lockley, Cashier, and handwritten date. This is a very rare bill and is now valid; the Bank of North America is the only notional banking institution which was not compelled to add the word "National" to its title, because it was chartered by Congress in 1781. Uncirculated.
- 585 April 17, 1862. $1. Bank of North America. The central device a finely engraved representation of Washington in military camp, with gun, cannon balls, etc. in foreground. Vignette in lower left corner; right hand side is a representation of Independence Hall; upper corners a figure 1 on engraved tablets; to right and left of the central device an ornamented figure 1; below on a rectangular tablet composed of tiny word ONES, across this in large green letters the word ONE. About Unc. Very rare.

- 586 March 11, 1863 $5; Aug. 1, 1862 $2; and $1; Regular U. S. Notes, to be sold as a set. To the left of $5 note Columbia, $5 and vignette on right side; payable at N. Y.; $2 note, Hamilton. On this note to right of vignette circular engraved tablet on which vertically arranged figures 1, 2, 3, the fig. 2 with white circular background; $1 note: same series of similar design, with Chase's vignette, the figure 1 has a white background. These very interesting notes show that a $3 was intended to be issued by the United States, but such a note was only made in an experimental way and afterwards destroyed. All notes very fine specimens. 1 lot.

RARE PAPER MONEY.

- 647 20c paper note, C. A. Cook & Co., Denver, Colorado, Territory, (1861). (Unsigned). This is the only known specimen of a series of paper notes of small denominations which were issued by the above named banking house at Denver, in 1861, which represents the only paper money issue of Colorado, with the exception of the $5 note of Clark Gruber & Company. All of these notes, of which $2,000.00 worth were originally issued, in denominations of 15, 20, 25, 50c and $1, all of which were made payable in gold dust and redeemed in that metal. Uncirculated. This note was lithographed by a firm in New York. On the left are two female figures, one standing, the other seated. On the right the representation of a little girl under whom is inscribed

“20 Cents.” In center of the note are three large circular engine turned tablets in green, in the field of the central one the figures “20,” and across the face the words “Twenty Cents.” Across the three tablets in large script reads “Promise to pay on demand in current funds when presented in sum of five dollars.”

- 648 Civil War regimental notes. 14th Mass. Heavy Art’y, 50c and $1; 2d Regt. N. Y. Heavy Art’y 25c. Crisp. Rare. 3 pes.

VERY RARE PATTERN COINS OF THE UNITED STATES.

- 649 1879. Dollar. Silver proof. Obv. the “school-girl” design, by Barber. On the obverse a youthful head of Liberty to left, with hair flowing, at the top of the hair a band bearing word “Liberty”, around the border the motto “E. Pluribus Unum”; “1879,” interspersed by thirteen stars. Reverse a magnificent representation of an eagle in attitude of defiance, standing facing to left; standing on a rectangular tablet on which is the motto “In God We Trust”; to the left of the eagle an olive branch, and to the right, three arrows; around the border “United States of America, One Dollar”, all spelled out. This is one of the very rarest of the dollars which have been made at the United States mint, either patterns or regular, and has a record of $150.00.
- 650 1879. $1. (Goloid Metric). Copper proof. On the obv. a female head to left, with tightly coiled hair; on a band across the top of the head the word “Liberty”; around the border “E. Pluribus Unum, 1879” and thirteen stars. On the reverse, within a circle of stars, in four lines: “15.3—G | 236.7—S | 28—C | 14—Grams” within a circle of stars. Immediately around the circle of stars, in semicircle at the top, “Goloid Metric Dollar”. At the bottom in semi-circle the motto “Deo Est Gloria.” Around the border “United States of America, 100 Cents.” This is one of the rarest of the goloid series of dollars, the head being of curious design, a good deal like that on the excessively rare stella by Morgan dated 1879, with tightly coiled hair, and the resemblance would seem to indicate that the work was by the same artist.

- 650a 1878. $1. Copper proof. On the obverse the regular accepted design of Morgan of 1878. On the reverse the same as the adopted design, but the eagle holds a thick olive branch with three leaves in its left talon, which materially differs from the adopted design. This pattern is very rare in silver, but is excessively so in copper, and it may not have been offered before.
- 651 1879. $1. Silver proof. Obverse same as adopted design by Morgan, but on the reverse a design by Barber! Illustrating a rare instance in which the obverse and reverse designs of two different engravers were used on a United States coin. In the center of the reverse is an eagle with outstretched wings, holding in its left talon an olive branch with 9 leaves; the right talon grasps three long arrows; just above the head of eagle, in small letters across the field is the motto "E. Pluribus Unum"; around the border "United States of America." This coin is also remarkable for the fact that it has the motto "E. Pluribus Unum" on both obverse and reverse.
- 652 1882. Dollar. Silver proof. The celebrated "Morgan design." Liberty head to right, with a band tightly stretched around the hair at the back, giving the effect of a skull-cap, under which the hair loosely flows; in the ear in the form of an ear-ring is a tiny United States shield; around the border "E. Pluribus Unum, 1882," with thirteen stars; on the reverse in the field is a fine representation of an eagle in an aggressive attitude, standing to right, holding in its talons an olive leaf and three arrows; around the border "United States of America." This is one of the handsomest of the United States pattern dollars, the beauty of which makes one wonder why it was not adopted for regular circulation. Not over four of these known. This is the first time in many years that it has been offered for sale in silver. So far as can be learned the last time being in the Doughty sale in the early '90s. Slight scratch on obv.

- 653 1878. $5.00. Copper proof. To the left a head of Liberty of original design, with two bands around the hair, on one of which is inscribed the word "Liberty", around the border is the motto "E. Pluribus Unum, 1878." Reverse: An eagle with outstretched wings holding olive branch and arrows in talons, head facing to left. Around the border "United States of America Five Dollars." This piece is of unusual size and of peculiar design, and none of its features were adopted on an United States coin.
- 654 1877. Half Dollar. Copper proof. Small Liberty head to left, in the center of the field, a head a good deal similar to the regular Morgan adopted design of 1878; immediately around the head a circle of dots; between this circle and the border the inscription "E. Pluribus Unum, 1877," with thirteen stars. On the reverse, an odd looking eagle facing front with head turned to right, with fan-like wings, its attitude suggesting "Phoenix rising from the flames." It is excessively rare as are all of the patterns of this year.
- 655 1882. Nickel Five Cents. Proof. Design same as adopted design of 1883, or "Nickel without Cents." Very rare.
- 656 1882. Five Cents. Copper proof. Same as foregoing, with the difference in the metal. Also a great rarity.
- 657 1882. Five Cents Nickel. This design, obv. and rev., is very similar to adopted design of 1883, but over the head of "Liberty" instead of the usual stars is the motto "In God We Trust" around the border. Proof. Very rare.
- 658 1883. Nickel five cents. Head of Liberty to left, surrounded by inscription "United States of America, 1883." On the reverse, enclosed by a wreath is an inscription "75 N., 25 C." At the top the word "Pure", and at the bottom "Nickel." Proof. One of the rarest of the five cent pieces.
- 659 1883. Five Cents. Obverse and reverse similar to the foregoing, but in the center of the wreath, in two lines, the words "Pure Nickel." Nickel proof.
- 660 1883. Five Cents. Copper proof. Obv. head of Liberty to left, at the top the word "Liberty", and thirteen stars, with the date around the border, the reverse the same as the adopted design of 1883, of the "Without Cents" variety. This coin is of excessive rarity, and was not mentioned by Davis, the great pattern expert.

- 661 1884. Five Cents Nickel proof. Octagonal hole in center; around the border "United States of America."
